7th Grade Book Project Quarter 4 Due on May 19

For your 4th quarter book reports you will be able to choose any book that you would like to complete your book report. You will be required to represent your book in a creative way that you will then present to the class on May 20-21

You may choose one of the following creative representations for your book report. If you would like to do a creative project that is not listed, you must speak to Ms. Nielsen to get approval before beginning.

Your book report will be graded on the completeness of your project according to the guidelines listed in each creative portion, as well as the presentation of your project in class.

Book Report Options:

Book Trailer

- Using imovie, Windows Movie Maker or another video platform create a trailer for your book (just like a movie trailer, only for a book instead)
- Must be at least 30 seconds long
- Must have sounds and images

Storybook

- Create a 10-page picture book for the novel you read
- Must have at least 6 pictures illustrating the plot of your story
- Must have at least 5 short paragraphs (1-2 sentences), explaining the plot of your story.
- Must be colored

Powerpoint

- Create a Powerpoint of your book using at least 8 slides.
- Each slide must have a visual representation of your book (image, symbol, etc) and at least one written sentence.
- Use the slides to go over plot, characters and setting of your novel.

Comic Strip

- Using the plot and characters of your novel, create a comic strip of one major event in the book you read
- Comic strip must be hand-drawn using both images and text.
- Must be at least 6 strips long.

Poster/Collage

- Make a poster or collage about your book on a ½ sheet or whole sheet of poster board
- Use magazines, drawings, words (printed on a computer, from a magazine or hand-written neatly), and symbols to represent the characters and events in your book. Make sure to add author and title!
- On the back of the poster, write a one-paragraph explanation of the front side.

Picture/Artistic Representation

- Create a painting, drawing, sculpture, etc. of your book.
- The artistic representation can be of characters, settings, a major event in the novel or a mixture of all of the above.
- Must be hand-drawn and look nice!

Brochure

- Tri-fold pamphlet about your book
- Have a colorful front cover with author and title of book
- Information about:
 - Character
 - Setting
 - Plot
 - Theme

Board Game

- Using the book you read create a board game of the novel.
- The game must be made for at least 2 people to play
- Use major events and characters in the novel to help shape the way your game is played.
- Game must have character pieces and a colorful board for game play.

Book Cover

- On a piece of paper make a new cover for your book.
- You cannot use the actual book cover,
- On the back write a brief synopsis of your book in one paragraph (just like a real book cover!)
- MAKE IT LOOK NICE!

Movie Poster

- Pretend like the book you read is being made into a movie, create a movie poster that would excite people to see the new movie.
- You can use both hand-drawn and printed images.
- The movie poster cannot be a blown up picture of the cover of your book! It must be original.
